V. Repair and General Work Methodology:

The scope of the work includes the following:

a. Propping and Supporting Structural Members:

Prop and support the identified beams to provide relief in stresses & strains to the distressed beam by suitably supporting such RCC slabs, which are contributing load to the beam itself. The load relieving shall be done using designed steel props adjustable with extension pieces, screw jacks, hard wood wedges etc with sole plates at suitable intervals but shall generally not exceed 1.5 metre centre to centre as per design approved by Engineer-in-Charge.

To avoid any overstressing of any existing flexural members receiving the transferred load of the distressed beam, the steel prop and supports shall be taken and continued to the firm ground. For upper storeys, the steel props shall be taken at least two storeys below or as per the design approved by Engineer-in-Charge

No timber ballies etc., shall be used as props. However, timber runners / beams/planks of adequate section could be used for supporting structural beams, slabs as load distribution mechanism.

Arrange all propping and supporting elements as per approved design:

(i) For Columns and beams: Identity and mark the members under structural distress, which are unable to sustain service load conditions and/or which are required to be ripped open for undertaking structural repairs or retrofitting.

(ii) For Beam / Slabs: Identity and mark the points for propping and supporting on soffit of RCC beam/slab requiring structural repairs, for transfer of loads to relieve it from stresses and simultaneously avoiding its collapse during the repair process.

(iii) Work shall be inspected before taking up structural repairs for safe load transfer to the founding medium by implementation of approved drawings/design of prop & support system.

Special Water-tight Shuttering/Form work:

Purpose: To provide shuttering or formwork and its joints to be able to resist a hydraulic pressure at least equivalent to a 10 metres water head without causing any leakage.

b. Removal of Surface Plastering using Chisel and Hammer:

(i) Safety shall be ensured in accordance with the requirements and specifications.

(ii) Provide double row type MS steel scaffolding.

(iii) Existing plaster to be identified for removal by tapping all areas and its boundary shall be marked with a colour marking (in an optimal rectangular shape)

(iv) Remove the plaster manually with the help of chisel and hammers to completely expose the parent masonry or concrete surface, so as not to have any traces of such plaster left behind.

c. Chipping of Unsound and Weak Concrete:

(i) Safety shall be ensured in accordance with the requirements and specifications.

(ii) Prop and support shall be provided to relieve the structural member of stress and strains.

(iii) Scaffolding, if necessary for the exterior members, shall be done for working upon the area.

(iv) Working platforms for interior members, if necessary, shall be erected suitably or provided as mobile.

(v) Mark off the area to be repaired using straight lines between corners. The marked area shall have 90° corners with the sides parallel or normal to the direction of the reinforcement.

The marked boundaries for the repair area, outside the perimeter of the spall. For a single spall, the repair area should have a minimum width of 100 mm in any direction. If a number of spalls are closely located to each other, these spalls should be included in a single area marked for repair.

(vi) Cut shall be made along the marked boundary, normal-to-the surface. It should be made with a diamond cutter blade. However, when diamond cutting is not practical, the normal cut be made with a power driven chisel. Minimum depth of cut shall be 10 mm. In situations where the diamond saw could cut into the reinforcing steel due to inadequate concrete cover, the boundary edge should be formed manually by means of chisel and impact hammers. A cover meter could be used to estimate the depth of cover.

(vii) Chipping to remove all the unsound and weak concrete materials shall be done carefully from the damaged portions of structural members by adopting mechanical or manual means up to the required depth to produce sound concrete surface to a near uniform depth for the repair area.

(viii) Chiseling: Hand Tools are typically applicable for concrete removal for smaller, moderate and areas of limited access. Removal should begin at the interior of the repair area and progress toward the boundaries, using suitable hammer. Power Driven Chisels/Hammers are normally applicable for chiseling smaller thicknesses up to about 50 mm. Pneumatic Hammers are normally applicable for chiseling larger thicknesses in excess of 50 mm. Mechanical Milling (single drum, rotary cutter head with Tungsten – carbide bits) is applicable for large areas where the concrete cover is to be removed. Care must be taken to avoid contact with the reinforcing steel as both the reinforcement and the cutter drum could be damaged. Rounded and Feathered Edges should be handcut to form normal to-the-surface boundaries. All the edges and cavities shall be square shouldered.

(ix) A full-depth chiseling and removal of concrete of reinforcement shall be carried out, in case the concrete in contact and in immediate vicinity of the reinforcement is carbonated.

(x) Inspection and soundness testing, after concrete removal & cleaning, for weaknesses and delamination of exposed surfaces shall be visually carried out. If required, additional removal will be done.

(xi) Cleaning of debris and dust shall be carried out from within the chiseled /chipped area and its disposal.

d. Cleaning Rust from Reinforcement:
